Conflict in Eastern Congo

A conversation with Steve Hege
United Nations Group of Experts on the Democratic Republic of Congo

Monday, December 3rd at 4:15pm
CISAC Conference Room
Encina Hall Central, 2nd Floor

The event will feature a presentation of the Group of Experts’ most recent report on the current situation in Congo. These findings have garnered significant international attention because of their role in implicating the Rwandan and Ugandan governments in the ongoing conflict in eastern Congo. The presentation will be followed by time for questions and discussion. Refreshments will be provided.

This event is sponsored by Stanford STAND, CDDRL Program on Human Rights, and Center for African Studies. For more information contact cmonroe@stanford.edu or visit http://humanrights.stanford.edu/events/.